Parish Mission Statement

“We brothers and sisters of Saint Clement Parish, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, through Baptism into Christ’s death and resurrection, know God’s love. Because of that love we feel called to share that Good News with everyone through diverse ministries that draw us to growth in holiness and unity of mission.

We commit our selves to serve our community by: reaching out to others in need, welcoming the stranger, worshipping through Word and Sacrament, educating from cradle to grave.

We pray to become a light to the world, sharing the Spirit’s flame embedded deep within each of our hearts.”

THE CLEMENTIAN

June 4, 2017
PENTECOST SUNDAY

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:4)

We are celebrating a birthday today! The day the Church was born! Let us thank the Holy Spirit today for what He has done for each of us.

The Holy Spirit doesn't just live in our great saints. He is also in you, helping you live a holy life. Have you ever felt inspired to reach out to someone in need? That's the Holy Spirit! Have you ever tried to share your faith with someone? That's the Holy Spirit! Have you ever fought hard against temptation and won? That's the Spirit! Have you ever left Mass or come out of a prayer time feeling refreshed and closer to God? That, too, is the Holy Spirit!

So, thank Him! Think of some small way you can celebrate what He has done and what He is still doing today. Maybe look on-line to see the different ways Pentecost is marked across the world. Maybe spend a few extra minutes in prayer reading about the gifts of the Spirit. Or maybe treat yourself and your loved ones to a special dessert. After all, it is a birthday!

"Holy Spirit, I am so grateful that You came to be with your Church and, even more so, that You are with me today!"

Our readings for next weekend, June 10 & 11: Exodus 34:4-9/2 Corinthians 13:11-13/John 3:16-18

Marriage: “Bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh” (Genesis 2:23) is used at weddings to describe the ideal relationship between husband and wife. This scripture passage makes clear that for marriages to succeed—that is, to be happy and healthy—then couples must treat each other with the same gentleness, courtesy, compassion, and respect that they want for themselves. USCCB

Life Matters: That the Holy Spirit move all members of the Church with renewed gratitude for each person's life. USCCB
