

THE CLEMENTIAN

August 5, 2018

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We all have many valuable gifts and virtues—kindness, patience, peace, and courage. We also have many attitudes and philosophies that wage war against these gifts and virtues—anger, maybe, or resentment, lust, or selfishness. St. Paul called these virtuous ways the “new self” and he called the sinful ways the “old self.” His approach, “Put away the old self” and “Put on the new self” is probably still the best way for us to grow in holiness. He saw this process of “putting on and putting off” as the true battle going on in our hearts and minds. He was sure that if we could win little battles each day, then we could gradually be transformed into the very likeness of Jesus.

So be alert today and every day. Pay attention to the battle going on inside of you. Ask the Spirit to help you see why you acted with kindness and love on one occasion and why you fell to deception or resentment on another occasion. Do this every day and ask the Spirit to strengthen you for this battle. Over time, you will find the “new self” becoming more and more prominent.

“Lord, help me to win the spiritual battle.”

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTER/S NEEDED

Eucharistic Ministers of Holy Communion serve in three different capacities at St. Clement Parish – distributing communion at Masses, nursing homes and private homes of homebound parishioners. We are currently looking for a minister who would be willing to distribute communion at the Allegheny Lutheran Home or Westmont Woods every 3 weeks. It takes approximately 1 to 1½ hours, depending on the number of residents, their availability and the amount of time you wish to spend with them. Some ministers distribute communion on Sundays and others make plans to go on alternate weekend days. If you feel called to become a member of this special ministry, please call the rectory office.

A RIDE IS NEEDED!

A Southmont resident who lives on State Street contacted our parish and asked if someone would be able to give him a ride to church. His preference is the 4:00 PM Mass, but he would be happy to attend any Mass if that did not work out. Please call the rectory if you can lend a hand.

Marriage: Commitment bonds a couple together when you are tired, annoyed, or angry with each other. Sometimes, remembering your vows can prompt you to push past these problems and try to forgive and start again. USCCB

Life Matters: For married couples considering adoption: May the Holy Spirit guide their discernment, grant them peace, and make possible his Holy will. USCCB

NOTRE DAME GLOBAL MISSIONS

Next weekend, August 11-12, you are asked to welcome Sr. Ann Marie Kanusek, a representative of Notre Dame Global Missions, for the annual Missionary Cooperation Appeal sponsored by the Diocesan Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Notre Dame Global Missions is a ministry of the Chardon, Ohio Province of the Sisters of Notre Dame, an international congregation. Sr. Ann Marie will share how Notre Dame missionaries accompany the poor and marginalized—empowering people through spiritual care, faith formation, education, work with the handicapped, healthcare, social services and social action. Your generous gift to the Missions will support the work of justice and love through which the Notre Dame missionaries bring the Good News of the Gospel to our sisters and brothers in need.

Look for a special collection envelope in next week's bulletin. Please make checks payable to St. Clement Parish and put "Mission Collection" on the memo line.

JOURNEY THROUGH LOSS SUPPORT GROUP

Have you or any of your family or friends experienced a significant loss through death? Your loss may have been recent or happened some time ago but dealing with your grief may still be very difficult. The parish family at Our Mother of Sorrows would like to help. The Journey Through Loss Support Group will be holding a series of weekly meetings beginning on Monday, September 10, 1:30 – 3:30 PM in the Our Mother of Sorrows Rectory. This six-week program is designed to acknowledge the pain of loss and offer positive ideas for coping. If you are interested or know anyone interested in attending, contact Carroll Green at 255-5478 or 242-0759 or Judy Burns 255-7044. This is a Catholic/Christian faith-based program. All denominations are welcome.

ECUMENISM: UNDERSTANDING OTHER CHRISTIANS

Christ is loved by many who are not of the Catholic Faith, but who are rooted in various Christian traditions. They are your neighbors, friends and spouses. But often we know so little about these traditions. Ecumenism involves the study of various Christian traditions with the desire to grow into communion and friendship with them. There is so much more that unites us than divides us. Monsignor Michael Becker, Ecumenical Minister for the diocese, will be offering a special introductory course on "Ecumenism: Understanding Other Christians," which will be an overview of Catholic ecumenical teaching. This course will be offered at the Family Life Office in Lilly on Monday, September 17, 24 & October 1 from 6:30 – 9:00 PM. There is a $10 registration fee. To register, please contact the Family Life Office at (814) 886-5551.
