TODAY'S GOSPEL REFLECTION—
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings speak of an essential quality for the Christian steward – hope. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, “Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ’s promises and relying not on our own strength but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit (CCC 1817).”

In many ways, this is the very definition of a stewardship way of life – focusing on eternity as we live our daily lives and relying on God to provide for our needs and satisfy our deepest longings for meaning and happiness right now.

In today's Gospel, Jesus describes the character of one who is living a life of hope – the life of a Christian steward whose trust is firmly rooted in God and who is focused on others and eternity. It is not always an easy life, but it is a deeply meaningful life and one that leads to eternal reward.

The season of snowflakes, fuzzy blankets and warm drinks is upon us! Although challenging at times, winter offers us the opportunity to appreciate the little things in life in its own beautiful way. It is the perfect time to reflect on our many blessings and warm the hearts of those in need with some of the “little things” we often take for granted.

We love receiving and delivering your donations of shampoo, conditioner, toothpaste, toothbrushes, shower gel, soap, deodorant, etc. and hope you will continue to be generous.

Let God's love shine through all that you are and all that you do!

Marriage: "Do not let the sun set on your anger." (Eph 4:26) Great biblical advice! Even if an issue is not completely resolved, make it a point to say "I'm sorry" and "I love you" after an argument and before bed.

Life Matters: We pray for married couples struggling with infertility. May the Lord help them trust in His love and sustain them with His peace.

Volunteers are needed to help make Haluski on FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28th from 8:30AM-Noon in the school cafeteria. Sign-up sheets are at each entrance to the Church. Please sign up if you would like to volunteer to help. Thank you!
