TODAY'S GOSPEL REFLECTION—

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, taken from the sixth chapter of Luke, Jesus offers a very challenging, seemingly impossible approach to daily life.

“Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak do not withhold even your tunic. ... Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back.”

It seems so unfair. Unless that is, we look at this way of life from a stewardship point of view. Then, not only does it seem doable (though challenging), but it also actually makes perfect sense. A steward understands clearly that all he has, and all that he is, is a gift from God given to him from an unfathomable abundance of love. This changes everything! This means that “my” cloak, “my” tunic, “my” money and “my” time – all of it ultimately belongs to God. He has entrusted these things to each of us in love to use for His purposes and His glory.

Thank you for your continued support of this ministry! Shampoo, soap, toothpaste, etc. may seem like ordinary products to most of us, but they are anything but ordinary in the eyes of someone who cannot afford to buy them – someone who can offer you nothing in return, except their heartfelt gratitude and thanks!

Sometimes miracles are simply good people with kind hearts.

Marriage: Among the many blessings that God has showered upon us in Christ is the blessing of marriage, a gift bestowed by the Creator from the creation of the human race—it is a source of blessing to the couple, to their families, and to society and includes the wondrous gift of co-creating human life.

Life Matters: The essence of our identity is that we are created in God's image and likeness and loved by Him. Nothing can diminish the priceless worth of any human life. Every person is cherished.

Volunteers are needed to help make Haluski THIS FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28th from 8:30AM-Noon in the school cafeteria. Sign-up sheets are at each entrance to the Church. Please sign up if you would like to volunteer to help. Thank you!
