TODAY'S GOSPEL REFLECTION—

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings exhort us Christian disciples to form ourselves – mind and heart – in imitation of Christ so we can better reflect His goodness in our daily lives.

Everything we have is a gift from God to be used for His honor and glory. This includes the gift of speech and, even more broadly, all forms of modern-day communication – email, text, Twitter, Facebook, etc. What comes forth from our mouths, and our phones and keyboards, reflects what is in our minds and hearts. Our ability to communicate with each other is itself a gift that we must steward well.

The more intentionally and frequently we look to Jesus as our mentor in these interactions, the more we will become like Him, our Teacher and our Lord. Then, all that we do and say (and Tweet and post) will bring others closer to Him. This is the life's work of the Christian steward. It is privileged work indeed.

Thank you for your continued support of this ministry! Shampoo, soap, toothpaste, etc. may seem like ordinary products to most of us, but they are anything but ordinary in the eyes of someone who cannot afford to buy them – someone who can offer you nothing in return, except their heartfelt gratitude and thanks!

Blessed are you who stand with the poor – that is where God is standing.

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY....

St. Clement Parish offers our sympathy to the family of Eva Domen whose funeral we celebrated on Thursday. Please keep them in your prayers.

Marriage: For as God made Himself present to His people in the Old Testament, so now Christ "comes into the lives of married Christians through the Sacrament of Matrimony."

Life Matters: The Gospel of Life is "meant to be a precise and vigorous reaffirmation of the value of human life and its inviolability, and at the same time a pressing appeal addressed to every person, in the name of God: respect, protect, love and serve life—every human life! Only in this direction will you find justice, development, true freedom, peace and happiness!"
