TODAY'S GOSPEL REFLECTION— PENTECOST SUNDAY

Today we reach the finale of the Easter season with the celebration of the great Feast of Pentecost.

Reflecting on today's readings inspires a sense of awe as we consider the mighty power of the Holy Spirit at work giving birth to and sustaining our Church. Just as awesome – the same Spirit is calling to us this day to take up our part in the Church's saving work. Each one of us, young and old alike, is personally called today by the Holy Spirit into the same mission as that of the first Apostles.

When we live in grateful dependence on the Holy Spirit, we can count on not only adventure, but peace – the peace that cannot be found in a “worldly” way of life. Rather, it is the peace that Jesus brings to us as we commit ourselves to Him. As we celebrate the birthday of the Church today, let's give thanks to God for calling us, His stewards, to the adventure of a lifetime!

*Holy Spirit,
Make my heart open to the beauty of God
every day. Amen.*

As we commemorate Pentecost, the birthday of the Church, may we be reminded that the Church is not a building, nor a steeple, nor a resting place, but a people. The first Christians at Pentecost were transformed by the Holy Spirit and gained a sense of community, a sense of loving and sharing with others. The Holy Spirit, likewise, equips, strengthens and calls us to be a blessing to the world by proclaiming the love of God to all His children.
