TODAY'S GOSPEL REFLECTION- 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, our readings offer a sober reminder that this life is not our aim and that God's justice will triumph in the end. Now is the time to get our priorities in order, putting God above all else as His faithful stewards. Before the eternal bliss of heaven, we should expect to be tried and tested. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name." Sounds scary, but if you are living a stewardship way of life, there is nothing to fear. You have a plan in place - all you need to do is stick with it. Put our Lord first in your time, with your talents, and through use of your treasures. This way of life is not meant to be easy, but Jesus promises it will lead to eternal salvation and the joy of union with Him. "You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance, you will secure your lives." Onward Christian stewards, the struggle is worth the joy that awaits!

Dear Fr. Rosenbaum, members of the St. Clement Choir, and the St. Clement Parish Family,

Our family would like to express our heartfelt gratitude for your kindness, prayers, and support during the difficult time of our beloved mother Millie's passing. Your comforting words, generous gestures, and presence have brought us strength and peace.

A special thank you to Fr. Rosenbaum for the beautiful service and to the wonderful St. Clement Choir for the uplifting and moving music that truly and uniquely honored our mother's memory. We are deeply touched by the love and compassion shown by the entire congregation.

Your faith and fellowship have reminded us of the grace and comfort that can be found within our parish community. From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for walking with us through this time of sorrow and helping us celebrate a life so dearly loved.

With gratitude and blessings, Rick, Sue, and Mark and Marilyn Povich

All young adults (18-39) and families with their children are invited to join us for faith, food, and fellowship! For more information contact Geoffrey Stumpo at (814) 659-7415 or geoffstumpo@gmail.com.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We need volunteers for our "Shadow Stations of the Nativity" on Saturday, November 29th, after the 4PM mass. Volunteer sign-up sheets will be available at each of the church entrances.

Our fingerprints do not fade from the lives we touch. Generosity has nothing to do with being wealthy. When we are fully surrendered to God, He provides the grace we need to share what we have – whether time, treasure, or talent. Thank you for continuing to provide personal hygiene donations for this ministry by sharing what you can!

We happily accept monetary donations which we will use to purchase the most requested items.
