TODAY'S GOSPEL REFLECTION-

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's readings challenge us to focus on the "why" of stewardship. Why embrace this challenging way of life when it seems hard enough just to pay the bills, take care of our loved ones, meet the demands of our jobs, and fall into bed at the end of each full day? Because this life is not all there is. We were made for more – for eternal happiness in union with God. While we cannot earn our way into Heaven, what we do now with the life God has given us has eternal consequences. Stewardship living helps us to keep focused on our hoped-for destination in the choices we make each day. In our Gospel passage from Luke, Christ reminds us very clearly that we were made for more than just this life and that our choices in this life have eternal consequences. In this passage, our Lord corrects some Sadducees for their mistaken notion that there is no resurrection. He instructs that "those who are deemed worth to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead... can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise." We should embrace the stewardship way of life to thank God for all His gifts to us and so that we may attain the gift of eternal life and the everlasting happiness of Heaven with Him.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We need volunteers for our "Shadow Stations of the Nativity" on Saturday, November 29th, after the 4PM mass. Volunteer sign-up sheets will be available at each of the church entrances.

THANK YOU from Birthright! Many thanks for your generous donations to help pregnant women in need and young families who are struggling. Your prayers and actions encourage us to continue our pro-life work in Johnstown to help the many who call us when in need.

Mildred Povich, a cherished member of our church family, passed away on Nov 4th, 2025. Please keep her son Rick and his wife Sue, and the entire Povich family in your prayers.

Marriage- Transforming to a culture of life requires continual conversion of our own hearts. We need to recognize not only the face of Christ in every person but place their needs before our own.
Life Matters- We pray to the Lord for all Christians. May we all look forward to the resurrection of the dead by preparing now, in hope for our passage from this life into eternal life.
