Blessing for Summer

O God,

Pour your blessing upon these summer months of sun and clouds, flowers and growth. In this season of cultivation, cultivate us as we worship, work, play, and rest in You. May this season, and all the others, serve to draw us closer to You.

Amen.

OUTDOOR MASS & FELLOWSHIP!

Join our St. Clement Parish Family for an outdoor mass at the pavilion on Sunday, August 9th, at 2:00PM! Following mass, we will host a casual gathering with light appetizers, drinks, and desserts. There is no cost to attend, and all parishioners and families are welcome!

To help us plan for food and refreshments, sign-up sheets are available in the vestibule and at each church entrance, or you may contact the rectory at (814) 255-4422.

Today's Gospel Reflection

Today's readings are filled with lessons both cautionary and consoling for the Christian steward. Our first reading, from the book of Wisdom, reminds us that our God is just as well as kind, all-powerful as well as merciful. "For You show Your might when the perfection of Your power is disbelieved... But though You are master of might, You judge with clemency." God is indeed kind and loving, but He is also a just judge and the day will come when we will have to give an account for what we have done with the gifts of time, talent and treasure that He entrusted to us during our lifetime. We will be judged by God for the part we played – or did not play – in the building of His kingdom.

We are never alone in this work, however, as we are reminded in our second reading from the letter to the Romans. "The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness... the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groaning." We must turn to the Holy Spirit continuously to guide us in our daily lives as Christian stewards. The Holy Spirit is the source of all wisdom. He will reveal to each of us the unique mission the Father has given us, as individuals and as a parish family, in the building of the kingdom of heaven. And He will give us the strength we need to remain faithful to our mission.

Please pray for the eternal rest of Katherine Walling, sister-in-law of parishioner Judy Strittmatter, who recently passed away.

Eternal rest grant unto her, oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her.
